WORKPLACE TRAINING

Lots of employers run or pay for training for their staff, but do not always have 100 per cent take up.

Any additional unused places on relevant training can be offered to Include Youth who through one point of contact will circulate relevant opportunities or spaces to our young people and staff.

There is no cost to employers and this is a simple yet effective way to make a positive social impact with what would otherwise be wastage.

This has worked very effectively with the Health and Social Care Trusts and Invest NI.
